OUR CENTRAL NEW YORK MASTERPIECE

Join Central New York's premier visual arts organization and explore your creative side. Boasting three floors of gallery space designed by internationally-acclaimed architect I.M. Pei, the Everson offers diverse exhibitions with an in-depth look at art – from the traditional to the cutting edge. From American Colonial period portraits to contemporary art, historical photography to pioneering video art, an internationally recognized ceramics collection, gallery talks and art classes, there is something for everyone at the Everson. Year-round programs such as Artist Open and the Contemporary Film Series – in addition to the Art Zone – offer creative ideas for family fun and entertainment. Members receive regular notices of upcoming events and exhibitions.

MEMBERS' COUNCIL

Members' Council is an energetic group of volunteers who are active ambassadors of the Everson. Hosting special events, operating the Museum Shop and coordinating Everson Trips are just a few ways the volunteers work behind the scenes to advance the mission of the Museum.

DID YOU KNOW?

All contributions from new members and increased gifts from current members will be matched dollar for dollar by the Richard Mather Fund.

Your employer may match your contribution to the Everson. Contact your human resources department to find out if your contribution could be going further.
